
What To Expect at Well-Child Visits

Very first visit:

- review birth history
- family history
- examine baby and check growth
- feeding and lactation advice

2 week visit:

- growth (weight, length, and head circumference)
- review feeding and advice for the upcoming months

2, 4 and 6 month visits:

- growth (weight, length, and head circumference)
- feeding (including solid food) advice
- gross motor and social development
- A postpartum depression screening tool will be provided to all mothers during these visits and we will discuss results.
- vaccines

9 month visit:

- anemia screening
- growth and development

12 month visit:

- growth and development
- dietary counseling including switch to whole milk
- vaccines
- vision screening using automated iScreen

15 month visit:

- growth and development
- vaccines

18 month visit:

- MCHAT developmental screening tool
- growth and development
- vaccines

24 month visit:

- MCHAT developmental screening tool
- growth and development
- vision screening using automated iScreen

30 month visit:

- developmental screening
- toddler feeding and safety advice
- growth and development
- ASQ developmental screening tool

3 year

- growth and development
- preschool readiness
- safety
- vision screening using automated iScreen

4 year:

- growth and development
- vision screening  If your child has been seen by ophthalmology or wears glasses then we can waive the need for vision screening.
- vaccines

5 year

- vision and hearing screening
- Kindergarten readiness
- growth and development

6-10 year:

- vision screening every 2 years
- growth and development
- scoliosis screening

11 year:

- vaccines = Tdap, Meningitis and Gardasil (first of 2)
- growth and age appropriate developmental screening

12-15 year:

- growth
- Middle and High school readiness and sports forms
- Age appropriate developmental screening and discussions specific to preteens and teens
- depression screening tool
- vision screening at 12 and 14 year visit

16+ year:

- depression screening tool
- vaccines = meningitis B (first of 2), meningitis booster
- (Your 16+ year old child may only come to our office alone if a form giving us authorization to see your child without a parent is signed at the time of the appointment)

If your child is behind on vaccines and needs catching up, the above standard schedule may not apply.